

NOVEMBER 2022 ARTS IN EDUCATION UPDATES AND OPPORTUNITIES

NOMINATE A TEACHING ARTIST, ARTS EDUCATOR, SCHOOL, OR ADMINISTRATOR TODAY!

The North Dakota Governor's Awards for the Arts program is presented by the Governor's Office and the North Dakota Council on the Arts (NDCA) to recognize organizations and individuals who have made outstanding contributions to the arts in the state. Nominations for the 2023 North Dakota Governor's Awards for the Arts are now being accepted. *You may download, print and mail a nomination but online submissions preferred.

Awards are presented in five categories:

- Individual Achievement (artist, staff, or volunteer)
- Nonprofit Arts Organization
- For-profit Arts Organization or Private Business
- Arts in Education (teaching artist, educator, school, or administrator)
- Individual Cultural Heritage Award

Criteria for the awards include:

- Expanding arts opportunities to new audiences
- Improving the quality of arts experiences
- Length of service in the arts
- Creating an appreciation for North Dakota's cultural heritage
- Making the arts more central to education and an integral part of community life

Please note:

All nominations and materials must be submitted/received by December 20, 2022.

Details can be found at <https://www.arts.nd.gov/governors-awards-arts>

ND AFTERSCHOOL: ARTS IN AFTERSCHOOL FUNDING Funding still available!

The ND Afterschool Network, in collaboration with ND Council on the Arts, is pleased to offer funding to ND afterschool and other out-of-school time programs to increase opportunities for students in grades K-12 to engage in arts programming during the 2022-2023 school year. Requested amount may range from $500 - $2,000. Connecting with your community is an important component to afterschool programming. Out-of-school time programs are encouraged to develop proposals that build or expand upon connections between afterschool programs, artists or arts organizations and community members.
