North Dakota Artist's Works Exhibited in Offices of the Governor and First Lady

The North Dakota Council on the Arts, along with the offices of Governor Jack Dalrymple and First Lady Betsy Dalrymple, will be exhibiting the works of Fargo artist Michael Dunn at the Capitol Building in Bismarck during the months of January, February and March. Dunn's works will be on display in the Governor's ground floor and first floor offices, the First Lady's fourth floor office, and the Attorney General's first floor office.

This is part of an ongoing program between the NDCA and the offices of the Governor and First Lady. Artists looking to represent their region with art work placed in the offices of the Governor and First Lady can submit a brief resume along with photographs or slides of their work to the North Dakota Council on the Arts, 1600 East Century Avenue, Suite 6, Bismarck, ND 58503. Artists are selected for quarterly display.

Michael Dunn was born and raised in Fargo, North Dakota. He attended North Dakota State School of Science, taking courses in Pre-Education. Michael completed his undergraduate work at Valley City State University receiving a Bachelor of Science Degree in art and physical education. He was awarded a Master of Studio Art from Moorhead State University.

Michael has been a practicing professional artist and educator since 1975. His works are included in numerous local, regional, and national exhibitions in which he has received awards. Michael's work is in many private and corporate collections in the United States and abroad. For more information visit <http://www.studionline.com>. You may also contact Michael D.
