A service and program agency, established by the State Legislature in 1967 "to ensure that the role of the arts in the life of our communities will continue to grow and will play an evermore significant part in the welfare and educational experience of our citizens"

(NDCC 54-54-01)

What We Believe

Mission: We strengthen the creative capacity of North Dakota for those who live or visit here: honoring our cultural traditions, empowering excellence and innovation, inspiring arts and culture opportunities for all.

Vision: A North Dakota in which all can experience arts and culture. All can participate; all are welcome; and arts and culture thrive.

Values: Art tells our stories – individually and as a state. Art, culture and creativity, by and for the community, have the power to: Inspire and Enhance lives; Build community and transform its spaces; Lift up, heal, and unite across divides. Everyone deserves equal access to a full, vibrant creative life, which is essential to a healthy and democratic society.

Goals/Objectives: Art & Creative Process for All, Vibrant Communities, Thriving Arts Ecosystem, and Excellence and Innovation.

WHAT WE DO

Grantmaking

9 varied grant application programs funded by the National Endowment for the Arts and ND State Legislature.

Annual and Biennial Events

Governor's Awards for the Arts, Statewide Arts Convening, Governor's Photo Contest, Poetry Out Loud, and ND Poet Laureate.

Exhibitions

Artist displays at Capitol-18th floor, and on State Highways; Exhibits at Heritage Center; and State Art Collection displayed at office.

Communications & Training

Monthly e-news, ongoing social media, Prairie Public broadcasts; online Professional Development webinars.

Arts Across the Prairie: Placemaking in Rural ND

First Statewide public art program in the country; Create 8 rural installations based on ND Cultural Heritage; Strengthen counties and regions; Spur economic development.

Fiscal Partnerships

Agreements with State Agencies and community organizations to expand reach, address current societal issues including Sacred Pipe Resource Center, Prairie Public and ND Corrections.

North Dakota Council on the Arts (NDCA) administers an average of ten grant programs at a time, supporting artists, educators, and organizations statewide. It also manages key initiatives like Arts Across the Prairie, the state's Poet Laureate program, and Poetry Out Loud. NDCA curates exhibitions at the State Capitol and organizes major events such as the Governor's Awards for the Arts, the Statewide Art Convening, and the Governor's Photo Contest.

The agency maintains active communication through monthly e-newsletters, social media, and public broadcasts, and offers professional development via webinars and training sessions. NDCA also collaborates with a wide range of fiscal and community partners to expand its reach and address current societal needs.

These partnerships include state agencies like Health & Human Services, Commerce/Tourism, and the Department of Transportation, as well as organizations such as Prairie Public, Sacred Pipe Resource Center, and ND Corrections. Through these efforts, NDCA ensures that the arts remain accessible, relevant, and integrated into the fabric of North Dakota communities.
